

MARTINOT

ABOGADOS

Alexander Bejarano Yábar, lawyer from the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú, with postgraduate studies in the High Specialization Program in Business Taxation by ESAN.

Alexander has more than eight years of experience in the areas of tax law, tax planning, international taxation, tax procedures and corporate law.

He has participated in the design of tax planning schemes, specialized advice on corporate taxation, tax procedures, taxation of non-resident companies. Likewise, he has participated in the design of acquisition structures and corporate reorganizations of important business groups with an international presence.

In addition, he has been a teaching assistant for the Tax Code course at the Law School of the Pontifical Catholic University of Peru.

He is a member of the Lima Bar Association.

He speaks English, French and Spanish.